When you arrive each person will have their own cooking station and you will be under the guidance of an expert chef and as a team you will create a wonderful lunch using all the tricks of the trade. This promises to be a fun day for those interested in cooking and best of all you get to enjoy the fruits of your labour afterwards!
 The chefs open up with a demonstration of how to make today's sweets / deserts, before you make a start on the other dishes. A combination of cooking and demonstrations and of course time to enjoy the food that has just been expertly prepared all adds up to a great day for the food enthusiast.
