Introduction

This is a full day tour taking guests to the historic towns of Stirling and Crieff. Your professional guide will provide a full commentary on where you are visiting and a fascinating day is in prospect. Stirling Castle is one of Scotland's best kept treasures, and dates back to the 15th century. Panoramic views of the Forth Valley make you realise the geographical significance of the location. The nearby Church of the Holy Rude dates back to 1414. After your visit to Stirling travel north to Crieff and enjoy a tour of the Famous Grouse Distillery with one of the best visitors centre's in Scotland. Lunch is included today. Finally, your day will conclude with a visit to the beautiful Drummond Castle Gardens that were originally laid out in the 1600 and Italianised about 1830.
